

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

Exhibition: July - November 1987 - Canberra

The Europe and the Orient Exhibition at the National Library of Australia includes East Asian publications, Japanese gold and silver coins, woodblock prints and old illustrated Chinese and Japanese books.

Exhibition: October 28 - December 11 1987 - Melbourne

Significant Acquisitions and Gifts from China: an exhibition including books presented by the Government of the People's Republic of China, on the first floor, Baillieu Library, University of Melbourne.

Conference: December 7-11 1987 - Peking

2nd Beijing International Symposium on Computerized Information Retrieval: Database development and Chinese information needs.

The conference, organised by the China Society for Scientific and Technical Information (CSSTI), has as its aims: the promotion of understanding and co-operation between Chinese and foreign database producers and users; aiding Chinese information users to find appropriate databases; the exchange of experiences in database development; demonstrations of new technology and methodology; acceleration of the development of Chinese databases and their use in China.

The conference language is English and registration fee is US$50.00. For further information contact Mr Wang Xiaozhu, Secretary for the Symposium, CSSTI, PO Box 640, Hepingli, Beijing, China.

Conference: February 11-15 1988 - Canberra

ASAA Seventh National Conference at Australian National University. The EALRGA AGM and forum will be held between 5.30 and 7.30 p.m., followed by the regional dinner. Please forward details of your discussion paper for the forum to Nikki White at the National Library of Australia, Canberra, ACT 2600. Full details of the conference are enclosed with this newsletter. The closing date for enrolment at the lower rate is 15th November, 1987.

Conference: August 27 - September 3 1988 - Sydney

Joint IFLA/LAA 1988 Conference. The IFLA theme is "Living together - people, libraries, information" and the LAA theme is "Living together - people, persuasion, power". The IFLA programme will include Asia and Oceania in its Regional Activities section. The conference organiser is Ms Dulcie Stretton of CBE, Dulcie Stretton Associates, Sydney, NSW 2001.

Conference: September 16-14 1988

- London

The British Library Colloquium on Resources for Japanese Studies is sponsored by the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS) of the University of London and the Japan Library Group. The themes are: overview of resources for Japanese studies in Britain and abroad; printing, publishing and the art of the Japanese book; current developments in automation and in co-operative ventures.

Conference: September 19-22 1988

- Durham, UK

Conference of the European Association for Japanese Studies at the University of Durham.

