

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

Conference: September 7-8, 1988

Canberra

Chinese librarianship - A global view. Post-IFLA seminar to be held at the Australia National University Library on the following topics:

- Chinese publishing and acquisitions
- Chinese computing and networking
- International co-operation
- Education for Chinese librarianship.

Papers are invited on these themes. Contact Mr Y.S. Chan on (062) 49 4536 or Ms Susan Prentice on (062) 49 3513, or write to Mr Y.S. Chan, The Head, Asian Studies Division, Australian National University Library, PO Box 4, Canberra, ACT 2601, Australia.

Conference: September 8-11, 1988

China

China International Symposium on New Techniques and Applications in Libraries. Contact: Xu Ting-qi, Secretary-General, Library, Xi'an Jiaotong University, Xi'an, Shaanxi, People's Republic of China.

Conference: September 14-16, 1988

London

British Library Colloquium on Resources for Japanese Studies, to be held at the School of Oriental and African Studies, London University.

- Day 1: An overview of resources for Japanese studies in Britain and abroad
- Day 2: Printing, publishing and the art of the Japanese book
- Day 3: Automation and co-operation.

On Day 1 one of our members, Pauline Haldane from the National Library of Australia, will present a paper on the H.S. Williams Collection, and on Day 3, a paper on the role of EALRGA in Australia.

Contact: Yu-ying Brown, Secretary to the Colloquium, Oriental Collections, British Library, 14 Store Street, London WC1E 7DG, UK.

Conference: September 19-22, 1988

Durham, UK

Fifth International Studies Conference on Japan, organised by the European Association for Japanese Studies, will be held at University College, Durham, and accommodation provided in Durham Castle. Papers will cover these topics:

Economics and economic history
History, politics and international relations
Literature
Religion and philosophy
Sociology and cultural anthropology
Theatre, music and arts
Linguistics and information systems (natural language processing, machine translation and information retrieval systems).

Conference: February 1989

Singapore

Asian Studies Association of Australia (ASAA) 1989 Conference: exact date to be advised. Contact: ASAA Secretary, School of History, University of New South Wales, PO Box 1, Kensington, NSW 2033.

