

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

---

Conference: June 2-3 1989 Singapore

The Chinese Computing Seminar '89 is being jointly sponsored by the Institute of Systems Science and Department of Information Systems and Computer Science, both of the National University of Singapore, and the Chinese Language Society. Organising Committee Chairman is Dr K.Y. Wang, Institute of Systems Science, National University of Singapore, Heng Mui Keng Terrace, Singapore 0511.

Conference: July 3-6 1989 Melbourne

The Inaugural Conference of the Chinese Studies Association of Australia will be held at the University of Melbourne, hosted by the Melbourne China Study Group. Contact: Dr Carney Fisher, History Department, University of Melbourne, Parkville, Vic. 3052.

Conference: July 6-9 1989 Sydney

The 6th Biennial Conference of the Japanese Studies Association of Australia (JSAA) will be held at the University of Sydney. Panels are planned for: the influence of Japan on Australia's literature and art; Japanese science and technology for Australia; Japanese tourism and economic activity in Australia; etc. Contact: President of JSAA, Helen Marriott, Department of Japanese, Monash University, Clayton Vic. 3168.

Seminar: August 23-25 Peking

A Seminar on Collection, Processing and Usage of Chinese Books is being sponsored jointly by the China National Publishing Industry Trading Corporation and the National Library of China immediately prior to the Book Fair (see below). Contact the sponsors for enquiries.

Conference: August 26 - September 7 Peking

China's second National Book Fair will be displaying the best books published on the mainland during the period 1979 to 1989, as well as outstanding books from Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan, in the Beijing International Exhibition Center. Contact the China National Publishing Industry Trading Corporation or the National Library of China for further details.

Conference: November 8-11 1989 Changsha

The 1989 International Conference on Computer Processing of Chinese and Oriental Languages is being organised by the Changsha Chapter of the Chinese Language Computer Society and the Chinese Information Processing Society. The theme is the application of advanced technologies and knowledge to Chinese and oriental languages computing, with an emphasis on recent developments in methodologies, systems, hardware and software.

