

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

---

Exhibition: February 1991 Canberra

The Australian National University Library plans an exhibition of Taiwan publications called Taiwan studies: an exhibition of publications, sponsored by the National Central Library, Taipei.

Conference: June 28-July 2 1991 Hong Kong

The Asian Studies Association of Australia (ASAA) will hold its second overseas conference in Hong Kong. For further information contact Dr Helen Jarvis, School of Librarianship, University of New South Wales, PO Box 1, Kensington, NSW 2033, Australia.

Conference: July 11-14 1991 Canberra

The Japanese Studies Association of Australia (JSAA)'s Eighth Biennial Conference will be held at the Australian National University in July, 1991. Contact: Dr Ross Mouer, Department of Japanese Studies, Monash University, Clayton, Vic. 3168, Australia.

Conference: August 13-16 1991 Taipei

The 1991 International Conference on Computer Processing of Chinese and Oriental Languages is sponsored by the Chinese Language Computer Society, the National Tsing Hua University, Hsinchu, and Academia Sinica, Taipei.

Papers are invited for these main subject categories: intelligent terminals and workstations; character recognition; font design and generation; speech recognition and synthesis; coding schemes, database and information system design; expert systems and applications; and man-machine interface. Please contact: Prof. Wen-Hsing Hsu, Dept. of Electrical Engineering, National Tsing Hua University, Hsinchu, Taiwan, 30043 or Prof. Yaohan Chu, Dept of Computer Science, University of Maryland, College Park, MD 20742, USA.

Conference: September 1-5 1991 Canberra

One half day of the National Special and Law Librarians' Conference: Achieving Excellence will be devoted to special libraries in the Asia/Pacific region. For more details contact Gail Hawke, Capital Conferences Pty. Ltd., PO Box E345, Queen Victoria Terrace, Canberra, ACT 2600.