

Greetings from the Editor

The year has begun in earnest and I am pleased that colleagues have found the time to make contributions to our Newsletter. Our special thanks to Anna Rubinowski from Monash University for reminding us that other special collections do have a relevance to Asian Studies. I trust that the year ahead (including the Year of the Dog) brings all renewed vigour and optimism as we continue the pursuit of improved information access for Asian Studies in our region.

Darrell Dorrington
Editor