

EDITOR'S NOTE

Members' contributions to the Newsletter are always welcome, and we are grateful for those received. In addition to reports, research, and library and resources news, we will publish letters to the editor and reviews. The deadline for the next Newsletter is April 30th, 1993.

A singular lack of enthusiasm amongst members to stand for the EALRGA Committee means that the same committee members are still holding the same positions. These people are not prepared to hold these positions indefinitely, and would like some expression of interest from elsewhere sooner or later. The deafening response could mean that you are content with the way things are going; on the other hand, it does make us wonder whether EALRGA is fulfilling a useful role. The Group is run on a voluntary basis, and the main purpose of the Newsletter is to share news of various kinds. If you prefer a different emphasis in the Newsletter, please let us know. You are encouraged to return this page to me with answers to some questions (see below).

Susan MacDougall
Editor, EALRGA

The EALRGA Newsletter is the newsletter of the East Asian Library Resources Group of Australia. Membership of EALRGA is open to librarians and others interested in East Asian library services and resources. The main aims of EALRGA are to encourage discussion and the exchange of information, to contribute towards an understanding of the problems of East Asian library services, and to promote the development and effective bibliographic control of East Asian collections in Australia.

Inquiries concerning membership and the purchase of back issues should be directed to the Secretary, and contributions to the Newsletter should be directed to the Editor.

Opinions expressed in newsletter articles are those of individual authors and not necessarily those of the EALRGA Committee.
